What happens next?

1. Your form will be looked at by your local council and your local youth forum. Each area has a youth forum that looks out for the rights of young people.
2. We will choose the best and most appropriate ideas. If your idea is chosen we will contact you to find out a bit more about your idea.
3. Then we will fill in a grant application form on your behalf. This means a formal bid for funding for your project.
4. Once the money has been agreed the council and any other organisations you have identified will work to make your idea a reality.

Of course if your idea does not make it to the shortlist we will let you know, so please include an email address on this form.

Please send your form back to your local council
